Pope's Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

The night is drawing to a close and the first light of dawn is appearing upon the horizon as the women set out toward Jesus' tomb. They make their way forward, bewildered and dismayed, their hearts overwhelmed with grief at the death that took away their Beloved. Yet upon arriving and seeing the empty tomb, they turn around and retrace their steps. They leave the tomb behind and run to the disciples to proclaim a change of course: Jesus is risen and awaits them in Galilee. In their lives, those women experienced Easter as a Pasch, a passage. They pass from walking sorrowfully towards the tomb to running back with joy to the disciples to tell them not only that the Lord is risen, but also that they are to set out immediately to reach a destination, Galilee. There they will meet the Risen Lord. The rebirth of the disciples, the resurrection of their hearts, passes through Galilee. Let us enter into this journey of the disciples from the tomb to Galilee.

The Gospel tells us that the women went “to see the tomb” (Mt 28:1). They think that they will find Jesus in the place of death and that everything is over, forever. Sometimes we too may think that the joy of our encounter with Jesus is something belonging to the past, whereas the present consists mostly of sealed tombs: tombs of disappointment, bitterness and distrust, of the dismay of thinking that “nothing more can be done”, “things will never change”, “better to live for today”, since “there is no certainty about tomorrow”. If we are prey to sorrow, burdened by sadness, laid low by sin, embittered by failure or troubled by some problem, we also know the bitter taste of weariness and the absence of joy.

At times, we may simply feel weary about our daily routine, tired of taking risks in a cold, hard world where only the clever and the strong seem to get ahead. At other times, we may feel helpless and discouraged before the power of evil, the conflicts that tear relationships apart, the attitudes of calculation and indifference that seem to prevail in society, the cancer of corruption – there is a great deal of it, the spread of injustice, the icy winds of war. Then too, we may have come face to face with death, because it robbed us of the presence of our loved ones or because we brushed up against it in illness or a serious setback. Then it is easy to yield to disillusionment, once the wellspring of hope has dried up. In these or similar situations – each of us knows our own plights, our paths come to a halt before a row of tombs, and we stand there, filled with sorrow and regret, alone and powerless, repeating the question, “Why?” That chain of “why”...

The women at Easter, however, do not stand frozen before the tomb; rather, the Gospel tells us, “they went away quickly from the tomb, fearful yet overjoyed, and ran to announce this to his disciples” (v. 8). They bring the news that will change life and history forever: Christ is risen! (v. 6). At the same time, they remember to convey the Lord's summons to the disciples to go to Galilee, for there they will see him (cf. v. 7). Let us ask ourselves today, brothers and sisters: what does it mean to go to Galilee? Two things: on the one hand, to leave the enclosure of the Upper Room and go to the land of the Gentiles (cf. Mt 4:15), to come forth from hiding and to open themselves up to mission, to leave fear behind and to set out for the future. On the other hand, and this is very beautiful, to return to the origins, for it was precisely in Galilee that everything began. There the Lord had met and first called the disciples. So, to go to Galilee means to return to the grace of the beginnings, to regain the memory that regenerates hope, the “memory of the future” bestowed on us by the Risen One.

This, then, is what the Pasch of the Lord accomplishes: it motivates us to move forward, to leave behind our sense of defeat, to roll away the stone of the tombs in which we often imprison our hope, and to look with confidence to the future, for Christ is risen and has changed the direction of history. Yet, to do this, the Pasch of the Lord takes us back to the grace of our own past; it brings us back to Galilee, where our love story with Jesus began, where the first call took place. In other words, it asks us to relive that moment, that situation, that experience in which we met the Lord, experienced his love and received a radiantly new way of seeing ourselves, the world around us and the mystery of life itself. Brothers and sisters, to rise again, to start anew, to take up the journey, we always need to return to Galilee, that is, to go back, not to an abstract or ideal Jesus, but to the living, concrete and palpable memory of our first encounter with him. Yes, to go forward we need to go back, to remember; to have hope, we need to revive our memory. This is what we are asked to do: to remember and go forward! If you recover that first love, the wonder and joy of your encounter with God, you will keep advancing. So remember, and keep moving forward.

Remember your own Galilee and walk towards it, for it is the “place” where you came to know Jesus personally, where he stopped being just another personage from a distant past, but a living person: not some distant God but the God who is at your side, who more than anyone else knows you and loves you. Brother, sister, remember Galilee, your Galilee, and your call. Remember the Word of God who at a precise moment spoke directly to you. Remember that powerful experience of the Spirit; that great joy of forgiveness experienced after that one confession; that intense and unforgettable moment of prayer; that light that was kindled within you and changed your life; that encounter, that pilgrimage... Each of us knows where our Galilee is located. Each of us knows the place of his or her interior resurrection, that beginning and foundation, the place where things changed. We cannot leave this in the past; the Risen Lord invites us to return there to celebrate Easter. Remember your Galilee. Remind yourself. Today, relive that memory. Return to that first encounter. Think back on what it was like, reconstruct the context, time and place. Remember the emotions and sensations; see the colours and savour the taste of it. For it is when you forgot that first love, when you failed to remember that first encounter, that the dust began to settle on your heart. That is when you experienced sorrow and, like the disciples, you saw the future as empty, like a tomb with a stone sealing off all hope. Yet today, brother, sister, the power of Easter summons you to roll away every stone of disappointment and mistrust. The Lord is an expert in rolling back the stones of sin and fear. He wants to illuminate your sacred memory, your most beautiful memory, and to make you relive that first encounter with him. Remember and keep moving forward. Return to him and rediscover the grace of God's resurrection within you! Return to Galilee. Return to your Galilee.

Dear brothers and sisters, let us follow Jesus to Galilee, encounter him and worship him there, where he is waiting for each of us. Let us revive the beauty of that moment when we realized that he is alive and we made him the Lord of our lives. Let us return to Galilee, the Galilee of our first love. Let each of us return to his or her own Galilee, to the place where we first encountered him. Let us rise to new life!

Bishop's Message

Dear Rev. Fathers, Religious and People of God,

I wish you all Greetings of Easter Season. May the Risen Christ bless all of your parishioners and your ministry. Please be sure of my prayers for all of you.

As the vacation is about to commence for our school going children, kindly organize for them Bible classes as you do every year. This is the appropriate time to inculcate into the minds of the children the importance of the Word of God for their faith formation so as to lead a good Christian life.

Through your parish children, kindly make sure that each family has a Holy Bible. It is not enough having a Bible at home. You may instruct them to read the Bible personally and as a family at some time of the day at home. You may advise them that reading the Bible at home together will unite the family.

As our nation is getting ready to go for elections, you remind your parishioners to exercise their franchise and it is their bounden duty. In the meantime, you may ask the people for a fair election.

May the Risen Lord bless you. You are in my prayers.

Yours devotedly in the Risen Lord

Bible Commission

On Sunday 3rd March, 2024, Bible Class was conducted for the eighth time at the Basilica of Our Lady of Rosary, Karumathampatty. Fr.

C. Lawrence

explained in detail to the participants the Book of Revelation, as a Drama, and Conclusion to the Holy Bible. It contains everything we Christians hold as doctrines. It makes it clear that the heaven and the earth, which were originally corrupted by sin (Genesis 3), are again formed into New Heaven (without sin/evil) and New Earth. It reveals the courageous witness of the early Christians. He also responded to the queries of the participants. Tea and Snacks were provided to all the participants. Congratulations to Fr. K. M. C. Arun, Fr. Benito and the Parishioners.

Bible Commission is pleased to inform that the Tenth Class (last class for this cycle) of the Fifth Cycle of Certificate Course was conducted on 17th March, 2024 at Jeeva Jyothi Ashram, Coimbatore. There were more than 120 participants. The day is marked by the presence of the Most Rev. Dr. L. Thomas Aquinas, Bishop of Coimbatore. He encouraged the participants to read, reflect and live the Holy Bible. He appreciated their zeal, enthusiasm, and sacrifice. He also appreciated the mission of Fr. C. Lawrence and Fr. Antony Jesuraj, Director, Pastoral Centre. The Most Rev. Dr. L. Thomas Aquinas awarded the Certificates and the Mementos to all the participants. He concluded with the Papal Blessing.

Rev. Dr. G. Joseph Rolington conducted all the four sessions. I quote his words, "Reaching the Jeeva Jothi Illam on the 17th March, I could see the thirst of the people. Some of them were already present in the hall to attend the Liturgy Seminar conducted by the Diocesan Bible Commission Secretary, Rev. Dr. C. Lawrence, GSS." In his lecture, he explained in details the importance of the Holy Mass. He began with a short introduction to the Liturgy according to the teaching of the Sacrosanctum Concilium in Vatican II. The Printed materials are as follow: i. Liturgy as summit and font of and for the Church's activities; ii. The Sacraments are nine in number, including Christ as the primordial sacrament and the Church as the fundamental sacrament; iii. The Uniqueness of the Holy Mass were given to the participants (around 125) so that they might follow the talk and ask questions for the further clarification. Rev. Dr. G. Joseph Rolington answered all the queries posed by the participants. The sharing hours were very useful to the participants. Fr. C. Lawrence responded to the queries related to the Holy Bible.

I extend my sincere thanks to the Most Rev. Dr. L. Thomas Aquinas, Bishop of Coimbatore and Very Rev. Msgr. John Joseph Stanis, Vicar General, for their continuous prayer and support. I owe my big thanks to Rev. Fr. Arun, Diocesan Procurator for his timely help by providing the necessary things. I whole heartedly thank Fr. Arul Iruhtayaraj, Bishop's Secretary for his timely help and the reminder. I express my words of gratitude to Rev. Fr. Antony Jesuraj, Director of Pastoral Centre, Mr. Leo, Mrs. Rani, Mrs. Julie, and all the volunteers for their dedicated service. Glory be to God.

Rev. Fr. C. Lawrence
Secretary, Bible Commission
